In Loving Memory

Acknowledgements
The Crouch family expresses its sincere appreciation for the cards, fruit baskets, telephone call and other expressions of sympathy extended during their bereavement. They have helped immeasurably in lightening our burden of sadness. We wish each of you to know that we shall remain ever grateful for your kindness and thoughtfulness. May the peace of God, our Heavenly Father, rest eternally upon you and his great love surround each of you now and forever more.

“A true measure of a man’s life...is the number of people who say that he has improved the quality of theirs.”

Major Julius T. Crouch was born November 1, 1943 to the late Julius C. and Ruby Crouch. He departed this life on April 14, 2013. Julius confessed at an early age and was a faithful member at Ward Chapel A.M.E. Church where he served on the Trustee Board for a number of years.

Julius graduated from Lincoln University with a BA Degree and earned a MA Degree from Georgia State University. He served eight years on active duty with the US Army and four years as a reservist. He attained the rank of Major while serving in the military. Julius had over 20 years of experience in Equal Employment Opportunity and Human Resources, mostly with the Department of the Army. He also worked for the Department of Air Force and the Office of the Secretary of Defense. His last assignment was as the Chief of Administrative Division, at the Logistics Systems Support Center.

Julius was active and involved with various Professional and Community organizations and is a Life Member of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., Lincoln University Alumni Association and the NAACP.

He was a founding member and currently served as Executive Director for the National Coalition for Equity in Public Service (NCEPS) where he worked with the leaders of six organizations. National Image, Inc. Society of American Indian Government Employees (SAIGE), Blacks in Government (BIG), Federal Asian Pacific American Council (FAPAC), Federal Employed Women (FEW) and Federal Employees with Disabilities (FEDS).

His memories will be cherished forever in the hearts of his wife Harriett and children Kyrral Crouch and Julius Crouch, II (Kimberley); Grandchildren, Kiana and Kaiden Bolden, Julius, III, Justin, Jaden Crouch. He is also survived by nephews, nieces, cousins and countless friends.
