

ADVANCING IN THE NEW FEDERAL LANDSCAPE

The federal landscape is infused with change, challenge and cost constraints. Today's leaders must be able to maneuver strategically, think boldly and balance risk at every turn. Join us for the 2009 Excellence in Government Conference Series, as we explore these topics and more in a series of three one-day conferences held at the Ronald Reagan Building and International Trade Center in Washington, D.C.

EIG II: New Leadership: People, Policy, Programs Monday, July 20th

Six months into the new administration, new political leaders are setting new priorities in many agencies, posing challenges for the career workforce. Learn how to adapt and move forward strategically for optimum mission success.

John Berry
Director

Office of Personnel Management

Featured Keynote Speakers

Gwen Ifill

Journalist and Author

Track One - Our New Government

The nation's financial crisis has caused a dramatic shift in government's role and operating procedures. Learn how policy changes will affect the staffing, capacity-building and performance-monitoring responsibilities of federal agencies. Discover the tools for - and necessity of - working more collaboratively across the public and private sectors.

Session 1: High Performing Government: Delivering on the President's Agenda

Session 2: Megacommunities: Are Some Problems Too Big to Solve Alone?

Session 3: The New Congress

Track Two - Preparing for Change

How can you best adapt to the rapidly changing federal landscape? Learn about agency best practices for managing and maintaining a committed workforce. Recent events have brought transparency, trust and ethics issues to the forefront - explore the issues in addressing these concerns. Gain valuable insights on building communities through networked leadership and how expanding your own personal and professional networks can broaden your horizons.

Session 1: Violated Trust: Strategies for Sticking to Your Values in the Face of Power

Session 2: Strengths-Based Leadership

Session 3: Broaden Your Horizons: Network and "Do-si-do"

VIP OFFER!

You have been selected to receive our VIP rate of $249, a savings of 30%.

To register, visit

www.excelgov.com/VIP

About Excellence in Government

Over the past 14 years, Excellence in Government (EIG) has earned a reputation as the key learning opportunity for government innovators - created for federal managers by federal managers. EIG is designed by an advisory panel of agency leaders who know the challenges their colleagues face every day and understand the importance of sharing best practices and innovative solutions across federal agencies.

EIG III: October 5, 2009

Driving Federal Improvement

The new administration will bring new ideas to improve agency management and enhance transparency of federal programs. Hear expert analysis of these new approaches and gain insight on what they mean for you and your agency.