Blacks In Government Annual Regional Training Conference “Moving with BIG Toward Greater Success”

Blacks In Government (BIG) will host its 16th Annual Regional Training Conference (RTC) in Providence, Rhode Island, from October 5 – 6, 2007. Our host hotel is the Renaissance Hotel at 5 Avenue of the Arts. Although this training conference is geared to Federal, State, and local government personnel, nongovernmental personnel can also benefit from this world-class training.

Blacks In Government’s Regional Training Conference has become synonymous with quality and value since 1978. Year after year, our gifted presenters coupled with relevant workshops have produced many thousands of highly satisfied attendees and participants. Here are some of the reasons to attend this world-class training:

- Meet the National President and 3rd National Vice President.
- Individual Training...select from over 6 workshops. Outstanding training experience.
- Workshops Organized by Category...skill-based training focusing on management leadership skills, career development, effective communication, information technology, personal effectiveness.
- Spectacular Speakers...learn from professional presenters and agency experts who empower the participants with knowledge and their experiences to be successful in the workplace, and life.
- Symposium...attend special topic sessions. Such as Legislative and Policy, Health Disparities, provided valuable information to conference attendees.
- Youth Oratorical and Information Superhighway Contests....support tomorrows leaders. See the Regional National Superhighway Winner.
- Networking ...achieve career enhancement and advancement through employment opportunities.
- Networking Extravaganza...attendees will be among public and private sector employees continuing the networking of people committed to improving theirs and our government performance and results.

Founded in 1975, BIG functions as an employee support group, an advocacy group and with a primary mission to promote, provide, and enhance education and training opportunities for blacks in government. With chapters throughout the United States, Europe and the Pacific representing more than 2.5 million Federal, State and local civil servants, BIG continues to be the largest organization dedicated to the preservation and professional development of the black civil servant. The annual BIG National Training Conference is one of the professional development conferences that agency employees have historically attended.

BIG is a non-profit 501(c)3 bi-partisan organization comprised of Federal, State, and local employees committed to achieving excellence in government through equal employment opportunity. We consider this training conference to be a viable training tool and career development resource. For additional conference information, about BIG’s goals and purposes, and current updates on the 16th Annual Regional Training Conference visit our website at www.bignet.org or contact the BIG Regional President, Dan Corria at 401.438.7636.
